United States Community & Immigration Services Presentations

On Wednesday, October 2, 2019, Mr. Ivan Gutierrez, a USCIS Community Relations Officer, presented the latest information on US Citizenship and immigration laws. Students at the Skills Center gathered in the auditorium to listen to Mr. Gutierrez and to ask specific questions about a variety of situations. Students thanked him for his valuable feedback.

On Thursday, October 3rd, Mr. Gutierrez came to Eastside Learning Center to deliver another great presentation. Again, students came prepared with questions pertaining to their application status. He provided information to students that would have required the assistance of an immigration attorney to respond. Our students thanked Mr. Gutierrez at the end.

Mr. Gutierrez will present one more time this year, at Eastside on October 10th, at 7:00 pm. Evening students who were not able to attend earlier sessions will have an opportunity to hear Mr. Gutierrez's updates.

Happy October Birthday to: Mac Velazquez – October 31

“Do what you love. Love what you do. Take less. Give more. Never quit. Never follow. Be passionate. Be bold. Be honest. Respect people. Respect the environment. Always bring out the best in your family and friends. Change is the only constant. Fear is an illusion. Attitude is everything.”
